The Bulletin of the Kiwanis Club of North Vancouver

September 29, 2005

THANK YOU, GORDON, for your dedication to the club and the leadership you provided during a difficult year.

We may, quite rightly, grieve over the loss of good members and show concern over our failure to replace them, but we must be positive about the future and the plans being formulated to bring in new people. There is nothing unique about our situation, most service clubs are struggling with the membership problem, nevertheless, terrific things are being accomplished and will continue to be accomplished by the dedicated members who remain.

At the present time, a consultant, Robin Wilson (our guest speaker last week) is all set to commence working with us; her mandate being to increase club membership and to enhance our profile in the community.

On the next page you will find a list of incoming club officers and directors. These appointments are subject to ratification by the membership at an extraordinary meeting to confirm these nominations (our club meeting of October 04).
